TAKES LEAP TO DEATH AFTER HOUR'S LUXURY

Young Man Forces Way Into Fifth Avenue Mansion for Feast.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Sept. 23.—In the Presbyterian Hospital a young man died early today, a victim of a distorted view of life—the view that one fleeting moment spent amid wealth and luxury was better than a prolonged battle against the olds of metarial existence. odds of material existence.

The young man who had been accustomed to want and misery all his life, died from injuries he received when he jumped from the third floor of the home of Mrs. Isidor Worsmer, a wealthy
